UPH Hospital Nurse Earns National Nursing Certification

TUCSON, Ariz. (February 26, 2008) – University Physician Hospital’s Paula James, RN, MN, MS, CCNS has earned her CCNS® nursing certification. It is one of the most advanced professional nursing credentials available in the field of critical care and indicates the acknowledgment of James’ peers that she is considered one of the very best in the critical care nursing profession.

“Paula worked very hard for this certification,” said UPH Hospital CEO, Norm Botsford “It signifies her dedication and desire to become a better nurse. She is representative of the high-quality care patients receive from UPH professionals.”

University Physicians Healthcare is a non-profit corporation created in 1985 as the medical practice of the physicians of the UA College of Medicine. Together, UPH, the University of Arizona, UPH Hospital at Kino Campus and University Medical Center combine to care for patients, educate medical students, train physicians and conduct clinical research. With over 350 physicians and 1,500 staff, UPH is Arizona’s largest physicians group. For more information visit www.UPH.org.
